Key Information About the Study

Your informed assent is being sought for your participation in research. Participation in the research is voluntary.

The purpose of the research is to test computer programs that analyze pictures and videos of people's faces. Participating in the study will take up to either 60 minutes or 90 minutes, depending on the length of time that you signed up for. You may ask to switch the amount of time, and we will do our best to accommodate your request.

If you choose to participate, we will use a camera to take photos and videos of your face. We will use these photos and videos to test the computer programs.

We may change the lighting, ask you for a particular expression or pose, or give you props like glasses or a wig that can change how you look.

We will not ask you to sign up with any company, and we will make sure that any company whose computer programs we test does not keep a copy of the photos or videos that we take. We will delete this data soon after your participation in the study.

At the end of the study, we will ask you a few questions about yourself and the apps and websites that you use.

We do not expect any risks or discomforts for you from participating in this study.

This research aims to improve computer programs that analyze faces and help people understand how these programs work.

Confidentiality

We will securely store the data that we collect in this study. Only the research team will have access to the data that we store.

This study has been approved by the [redacted] IRB.

We will not share your name or contact information with anyone. In the research that we publish, we will not identify you or include any information that could be used to identify you.

The only information about you that we may share is the photos and videos that we take of your face. We will only share this information with companies as needed to test their computer programs, and we will make sure that they delete this information soon after your participation. We will also delete the photos and videos that we store soon after your participation.

We will not use or distribute your personal information for future research studies.

Compensation

If you participate in a 60-minute study session, you will receive a $30 Amazon gift card. If you participate in a 90-minute study session, you will receive a $45 Amazon gift card.
